

Fresno Tomorrow!

It's Spartan Vs. Bulldog In West Coast Classic Contest Before 15000

By JOHNNY HUBBARD

Two arch-rivals of the gridiron will resume hostilities tomorrow afternoon on the greenward of Ratcliffe Stadium in Fresno when San Jose's powerful Spartans run up against Fresno State's highly regarded Bulldogs in the ninth annual meeting of these teams.

It's the "Big Game" of the year as far as the two schools represented are concerned—and it's more than that this season—it's one of the big games on the Pacific Coast.

Fresno, up until its disastrous defeat at the hands of U. S. F. two weeks ago, was rated high up among the leading elevens of the country. The Dons knocked them from the undefeated list by rolling up an unexpected 33-13 victory.

Oddly enough, this same San Francisco outfit is also all that stands between the Spartans and a spotless record—a 20-13 defeat suffered at the hand of U. S. F. being the only blemish on State's otherwise untarnished ledger.

Despite this mutual fact, however, and the seeming advantage on San Jose's side as shown by the result of this one game, Fresno is being given the nod of most experts for tomorrow's duel—rated on the short end of the odds, which are somewhere in the neighborhood of 8-5.

Perhaps the biggest reason for the disregarding of comparative scores is Fresno's "big gun"—triple-threat quarterback Jack Fellows, who has been publicized into almost a "Superman" role for his exploits of the current campaign.

Fellows is the man around whom Coach "Rabbit" Bradshaw has built his offense—and the little 165 pound whirlwind hasn't let his

KNOWLES WINS HOBBLE; ROJAS COMES IN SECOND

"Now I'll just raffle off old Tesse and take myself down to Fresno on the proceeds."

Resting peacefully today after coasting home in 17:15.8 to capture the second annual Turkey Run, Thelno Knowles started planning to pick up a little spare change and hustle down to Fresno.

Rated even with Eustace Rojas, last year's winner and second placer yesterday, Knowles took over the lead at the half-way mark and stretched out to win going away.

In third place three blocks back came the real dark horse of the event, Ed Rudloff, fugitive from the waterpolo team who hung onto second place until the pack started the long journey home and then he dropped back to capture Brewster the Rooster—third-place prize.

The toughest battle of the day came between fourth and fifth placers Ruel Lefler and Jack Breslin. Lefler edged Breslin by two yards in the final ten yards.

Knowles' time, although not as fast as Rojas' for the distance last year, could have been much faster if someone had pressed him. As it was, Knowles slowed greatly on the return trip and enjoyed a comfortable lead all the way.

Wilbur Wool, Spartan captain, will bring his collegiate football career to a close tomorrow afternoon against Fresno State. Willie has starred for three years at the center post for San Jose, and hopes to lead his team to a win in this his final encounter with the favored Bulldogs.

Gives Approval STUDENT COUNCIL ENDORSES STATE BUREAU

Voting approval of the State Bureau, the Student Council held its shortest meeting of the year last night in the Student Union.

Sitting in on the proceedings for the first time was newly appointed councilman Arthur "Babe" Inman. The rules, regulation, and procedure of the Bureau were read and discussed before final approval was given.

The Bureau will be solely for the use of ASB card-holders. Other business carried out in the one-hour meeting was:

BUSINESS LISTED

1. Violation of the rule book by the French honor society and Gamma Phi fraternity was reported in letters to the council from Dean of Women Helen Dimmick and AWA president Beverly Roberts. Both organizations held parties on the night of the AWA Jamboree without getting a release from the Associated Women Students. The case was referred to the Student Court.

2. A large sign explaining the rules of the date book has been placed in Dean Dimmick's office, reported Secretary Betty Hood.

3. A report of the action taken by the Student Court in its meeting Monday night was read and discussed. Details are in an adjoining story.

The reason for the meeting being called short was to allow the council members time to attend the Student Christian Association meeting at the Student Center.

Next meeting will be Tuesday night at 7:30 p. m.

EIGHT CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS LOSE PRIVILEGES, COURT RULES

Eight on-campus organizations were deprived of their campus privileges for failing to comply with the student council's orders to turn in their membership lists in a unanimous decision by the Student Court in a meeting of that body held Monday night.

In explaining the action, Chief Justice Francis Stoffels

SENIOR MEETING

There will be a special meeting of the senior council Monday at 4 o'clock in room 13, announces senior class president Doug Curry.

All council members and class advisers should plan to attend if it is at all possible as the meeting will be important.

Chapel Service In Observance Of Thanksgiving Day

Chapel Hour will be held today for special Thanksgiving observance, and Douglas Hayward will be the main speaker.

To be held in the Little Theater as usual, the program will start at 12:30 with "Siegfried Idyll" by Wagner played as a prelude.

Hayward's topic will be "Faith in These Times." The prayer is to be given by Ray Balcomb. There will also be special music, a Thanksgiving hymn, sung by one of the students.

Chapel Hour was begun last year under sponsorship of AWA and is now under the guidance of the SCA as well. Its initial purpose is to provide religious outlets for college students of all faiths. It is held once a week.

pointed out that the organizations had been given plenty of warning as to the deadline, but had failed to make any attempt whatsoever to turn in the lists. Campus privileges revoked by the court include the use of the Spartan Daily for campus publicity, the use of campus bulletin boards, meetings on-campus, and the use of the date book.

Fourteen offenders were ordered by the court to send representatives before the student tribunal Monday night to explain why they had not turned in their lists.

APPEALS MAY BE GRANTED

The student council has been notified of the action taken by the court, and now has a recommendation by the body to take away the on-campus recognition of the eight offenders. "However," Jane Jillson, senior judge, noted, "appeals may be granted in all instances."

Organizations losing their on-campus privileges are: Alpha Eta Rho, Botany Club, Eta Mu Pi, Forestry Club, Geology Club, Pegasus, Pre-Legal, and Sociology Club.

DISREGARDED LENIENCY

"We tried in every way possible to give the defendants an opportunity to escape this action," commented Justice Stoffels, "but apparently they have disregarded the leniency that we were showing them. It is regrettable that we had to recommend their removal as on-campus organizations, but the truth is we had no alternative."

Spartan Rooters

Big caravan to the game will be formed Thursday morning at 4:30 o'clock on First and Santa Clara streets. You will really enjoy the trip if you join the crowd. Don't forget the streamers, rooters' caps, megaphones and whatever else you will need for a good time. All students going to Fresno game please wear white shirts or white blouses.

mentor down. He's passed, and run, and kicked his team to seven spectacular victories.

FOIL FELLOWS

But Hartranft & Co. are laying plans to foil Fellows—and the war cry seems to be "Stop Fellows and you stop Fresno." It can be done; USF proved that.

As far as San Jose's chances are concerned, things are looking up. Bert Robinson, the Spartan's offensive pivot man, is going to start the game—bad knees and all. His legs will be bandaged heavily to keep them from sustaining any further injury. That's good news for State fans.

TEAM IN A-1 SHAPE

The rest of the team is in A-1 shape—mentally as well as physically—because the boys have been pointing for this contest all season, and they will be right at their all-around peak at game time.

So much for the game itself.

Previous to the serpentine there will be a rally in the quad at 12:30 if the weather is good, and in the auditorium if it is bad. Details of the rally had not been definitely worked out at press time.

VITAL STATISTICS: Thirty-five players are being taken to Fresno. About 300 Spartan rooters are expected to be on hand—maybe more. A sellout crowd of more than 15,000 is anticipated. Game time is set for 2:00 o'clock.

SJS 'Victory Girls' Invited To Party By Naval Cadets

The Naval Aviation Cadets have extended an invitation to 75 San Jose "Victory Girls" to attend a turkey dinner and dance tonight at their base in Livermore.

The transportation will be furnished, and all girls with orange victory cards may go. They should register with Miss Pearce at the YWCA or at the Women's gym office before noon today if they intend to attend.

The invitation was made to Mrs. Arthur Mitchell Jr., chairman of the AWVS; Dr. Palmer, head of the Women's Physical Education department, and Miss Helen Dimmick, dean of women, will attend under the auspices of the AWVS.

SPARTAN SCOOTER FOOTE

Odds and Ends On Seniors, Coaches

Tomorrow's clash between the San Jose State Spartans and the Fresno State Bulldogs will be the last collegiate game for five of James "Rabbit" Bradshaw's men and nine of Tiny Hartranft's stalwarts.

Seeing their last bit of action will be Jim Mulligan, Vernon Humphrey, Roy Renfro, Howard Henderson, and Jim Molich of Fresno, while Stu Carter, Vern Cartwright, Charles Cook, Woodrow Gibson, George Hearn, Gray McConnell, George Foote, Floyd Wheat and captain Wilbur Wool make their exit for San Jose.

Bradshaw has yet to defeat a Golden Raider team—losing 42 to 7, 1939; 14 to 7 in '41, and tying 0 to 0 last year.

DOUBLEDUTY-MAN COOK

Also seeing his last action for a Spartan football eleven is Charlie Cook who plays at either the center or fullback position.

Due to the uncertain condition of Robinson, he will probably be used exclusively in the backfield. He is a left-footed kicker and passer and has been steadily improving in the backfield with each game.

FROSH QUINTET PLAY FIRST GAME FRIDAY NIGHT

Friday night, November 27, brings the opening cage contest of the year when the frosh quintet, under the direction of Angelo Colombo, meets Alhambra high of Martinez, in the Men's gym at 8 o'clock.

Colombo has been working his boys hard the past week in preparation for this contest and states that they are beginning to work together very well. Chances for victory were cut considerably when it was announced that Pete Allen, frosh center from Palo Alto, had dropped school suddenly for some unknown reason. This leaves Colombo without any experienced men for the pivot post.

The frosh will be decked out in the white suits of last year's varsity for the opener. There will be no admission charged and no preliminary contest of any kind.

NOTICES

Sophomores: There will be a meeting of the Soph council today in room 24 at 5 p.m. Please attend.—Al Gross, President.

There will be a meeting of the Junior council today in room 24 at 12:30.—Poytress, President.

Beginner's social dancing class will be held today in the Women's gym from 4 to 5 p.m. Both men and women are invited.

Have room for three people sharing expenses to Fresno Wednesday morning. Leave name, address and phone number in "E" box in Coop today.

Will take three boys to Fresno in very large auto trunk ('40 Buick convertible) for 75 cents a head. Leave phone number in "N" box in Coop.

Attention, Swimming Club Girls: Hereafter the Swimming club is going to meet from 7:30 to 8:30 on Monday nights. Let's see a big turn out this Monday night after vacation. Bring your own cap and an OK from the Health office.

There will be a special meeting of the SJS Radio club, Wednesday noon, in room S104. Pertains to annual dinner, so please be there.—Dwight Teall, Secretary.

Student Book Exchange Members: Signup sheet on bulletin board now for work on sale of lost and found articles on Monday, November 30; Tuesday and Wednesday, December 1 and 2.—Marie Hayes.

All kindergarten - primary students minoring in Child Training should register immediately for any courses they are planning to take in that department next quarter.

Kindergarten-primary girls who expect to take K-P. Curriculum this year must take the course in the winter quarter. It will not be offered in the spring.—Mabel Crumby.

There will be a short meeting of SGO today at noon at 30 South Fifth street.—Larry Moore.

CAST HITS ROAD

They're still at it! For their third Army performance, the "Male Animal" cast will go into production again Monday night—this time at an Army camp in Gilroy.

According to Director Ted Hatlen of the Speech department, the students will be guests at dinner (turkey hash is expected).

The cast will leave here Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Army trucks.

Orchesis To Send Delegates To S.F.

The Orchesis groups of San Jose State college will be privileged to receive a master lesson from Katharine Dunham, concert dancer, when they attend the symposium of modern dance clubs of eight West coast colleges in San Francisco December 5.

Miss Dunham, the only negro concert dancer, made an extensive study of primitive rhythms and skills while studying for her master's degree in anthropology in Haiti. She has combined a teaching and professional dancing career, having lectured to combined classes of anthropology and modern dance in many colleges throughout the United States, touring the country with her company of dancers, and directing the dance sequences of many motion pictures.

Fifteen girls will represent San Jose State college at the symposium. They will discuss "Dance and the Child in the Present Emergency."

FLUOROSCOPY

It is requested that the following people report to the Health office immediately to make an appointment for fluoroscopy:

Ben SanFillippe, Wayne Sargent, Anthony Saso, Georgia Saunders, Nancy Scherf, John Schulz, Edwina Scilacci, Al J. Scoffons, Royce Seibold, William Shaw, Clay Sheets, Marvin Sheets, Janis Shepherd, Alfred Shepperd, Kenneth Sherman, Virginia Sherman, Boris Shirokoff, Jack Silva, Patricia Simon, Thelma Simpson.

Warren Thomas, Esther Lacitinola Win In Oratory Finals; Prizes To Be Awarded Today In Little Theater

By FLOYD REZEWALLE

Warren Thomas and Esther Lacitinola won first and second honors in the oratory finals of the Western Debate tournament being held on the campus this week.

Other finals held yesterday were in extemporaneous and debate entries.

Henry Leland and Tom Griffen will be San Jose's entrants in this division. Each team will participate in six rounds and change sides after each round. All teams having no defeats, and teams with one defeat, whose total of wins times the total wins of all its opponents, is equal to a similar average score of the undefeated teams will qualify for finals.

Subject for debate is as follows: Resolved: That the United Nations should establish a permanent Federal Union with power to tax and regulate commerce, to settle international disputes and to enforce such settlements, to maintain a police force, and to provide for the admission of other nations which accept the principles of the Union. Oxford style of debate will prevail.

"Since most of the students are anxious to return home for the holidays, the previously planned dinner will be cancelled and prizes will be awarded this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Little Theater," announces Richard Flower, debate manager.

"San Jose State college is a fine place and the students I have met are very friendly and courteous," declares R. D. Mahaffey, tournament director from Linfield college.

Faculty members acting as judges include: Ted Hatlen, Peter Mingrone, Clara Hinz, Marie Carr, Victor Hunt, Dr. Dorothy Kaucher, Bernice Tompkins, Claude Settles, Wesley Goddard, Owen Broyles, Wendell Johnson, Ward Rasmus, Dean Paul Pitman, Dr. William Poytress, Wilda Merritt, Herbert Sanders, Dr. Olive Gilliam, Marjorie Lucas, Florence Bryant, Dr. Raymond Barry, Dr. Ezekiel Bogosian, Heber Setzin, Milton Rendahl, Benning Dexter, Dorothy Manchester, Margaret Letzter, Dr. Elmo Robinson, Dr. James Wood.
